

Dr Charnell Ruby Naidu

Coloured Female

I am senior educator in the Department of Education, I also serve as a District Examiner for English Home Language. Throughout my career I have been instrumental in policy making at school level. I also serve on various committees such as discipline and the school academic integrity committee. I also mentor junior staff. I am involved in the marking of the NSC examinations. I completed my PhD in Gender Education at UKZN, my Masters and Honours Degree is also in Gender and Education Management – both cum laude. I am a member of the Golden Key Society. I co-authored an article for the South African Journal of Higher Education. I am currently in the process of writing more articles related to Gender-Based Violence at universities.
