

Africa Mfanelo Bhengu

OBJECTIVE

As an individual passionate about human rights and social justice, I aim to contribute my communication, leadership, and problem-solving skills to the work of SAHRC. I am committed to promoting equality, dignity, and accountability while engaging with communities and upholding the values of the Constitution.

PERSONAL DETAILS

Marital Status : Single

Nationality : South African

Gender : Male

EDUCATION

Stellenbosch University

Certificate in Leadership in Education

2026 to present

Walter Sisulu University

Bachelor of Education in Senior Phase and FET (Mathematics, Science and Technology)

2024 to present

Skofill Secondary School

Matric

2022

EXPERIENCE

Independent Electoral Commission

Fieldworker

03 March 2026 – 30 April 2026

- Assisted with voter registration or re-registration at Walter Sisulu and reported progress to the supervisor.

Walter Sisulu University

Peer Educator

10 March 2025 – Present

- Mentor and guide students, facilitate workshops, and provide support to promote academic excellence, personal growth, and social responsibility.

Independent Electoral Commission

Registration Officer

02 September 2025 – 23 September 2025

- Assisted with voter registration, verified voter information, managed data, and provided excellent customer service, ensuring accurate and efficient electoral processes.

Sinawe Application Centre

Student Recruiter

03 April 2024 – Present

- Advised learners about university programs, career pathways, and guided them through the application process.
-

SKILLS

- Analytical and Investigation Skills
- Communication Skills
- Leadership and Governance
- Legal and Policy Awareness
- Teamwork and Collaboration