

Professional Profile

LLB graduate from the University of South Africa (UNISA) with a strong academic foundation in constitutional law, human rights law, international law, civil and criminal procedure, and statutory interpretation. Passionate about the promotion, protection and advancement of human rights, constitutional democracy and access to justice in South Africa. Possesses strong legal research, analytical and legal drafting skills with the ability to analyse complex legal problems and develop well-reasoned legal arguments. Committed to ethical legal practice, constitutional governance and public interest law.

Education

Bachelor of Laws (LLB)
University of South Africa (UNISA)
Completed: 2025
Graduation: 04 June 2026

Key Legal Modules

Constitutional Law
International Law
International Human Rights Law
Criminal Law
Law of Contract
Law of Delict
Civil Procedure
Criminal Procedure
Law of Evidence
Legal Interpretation

Legal Skills

Advanced legal research (case law, legislation and academic sources)
Legal drafting including memoranda, legal opinions and court documents
Case law analysis and legal reasoning
Statutory and constitutional interpretation
Legal writing and argument development
Professional communication and legal presentation
Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook)

Core Competencies

Analytical thinking and legal reasoning
Strong attention to detail
Problem solving and conflict resolution
Ability to work independently and collaboratively
High ethical standards and professional integrity
Time management and deadline-driven performance

Legislative & Regulatory Knowledge

Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996
Promotion of Administrative Justice Act (PAJA)
Promotion of Access to Information Act (PAIA)
Labour Relations Act
Basic Conditions of Employment Act
Companies Act
Criminal Procedure Act

Professional Interest Areas

Human Rights Law
Constitutional Law
International Human Rights Law
Administrative Justice
Public Interest Litigation
Access to Justice

Legal Research and Policy Development

References

Available upon request.