2. LATE DISCLOSURES

COMMITTEE DELIBERATION:

The Joint Committee considered the late disclosures and raised the view that Members of Parliament should treat the disclosure process with the seriousness that it deserves. That the disclosure of financial and other registrable interests is the foundation upon which the public is able to hold Members of Parliament to account. It is through this process that the public gain insight to the integrity and ethical standard of the Members of Parliament and the institution of Parliament.

2.1 HON. N.T. MKHATSHWA, MP

2.1.1 The Member submitted the disclosure of interests form on 27 September 2019.

2.1.2 The member wrote to the Joint Committee and explained that the reason for her late disclosure was because she was awaiting a legal opinion on whether she could conduct remunerative work outside of Parliament.

2.1.3 The Joint Committee indicated that the Member could have submitted the disclosure before 13 September 2020 and later amend the disclosure of interests form when the legal opinion was received.

2.1.4 The Joint Committee found that the Member breached item 10.1.1.1 read with item 9.2.2 of the Code.

2.1.5 The Joint Committee afforded the Member an opportunity to address it in writing on the recommended penalty.

2.1.6 The Member wrote to the Joint Committee and indicated that she regretted submitted the disclosure late. The Member further indicated that she commits to not repeating an error of this nature again. The Member requested of the Joint Committee to impose a penalty in terms of item 10.7.7.1(v) of the Code.

2.1.7 Item 10.7.7.1(v) of the Code provides as follows:

“(v) in event of a breach considered minor by the committee the Member may be ordered to rectify the breach and be counselled on the requirements of the Code.”.

2.1.8 RECOMMENDATION:

The Joint Committee recommends to the House to impose a penalty in terms of item 10.7.7.1 (i) of the Code, which provides as follows:

2.2.1 The Member submitted the declaration of interests form on 18 September 2019.

2.2.3 The Joint Committee afforded the Member an opportunity to address it in writing on the recommended penalty.

2.2.4 The Member wrote to the Joint Committee and indicated that she regretted not initially providing a reason for her late disclosure. However, she indicated that an official who assists her, misplaced her forms and this caused her to submit the disclosure forms late.

2.2.5 The Member apologised for the late disclosure and did not request a particular penalty in terms of the Code.

2.2.6 RECOMMENDATION

The Joint Committee recommends to the House to impose a penalty in terms of item 10.7.7.1 (i) of the Code, which provides as follows:

2.3.1 The Member submitted the disclosure of interests form on 15 November 2019.

The Member apologised for the late disclosure and indicated that it was not his intention to miss the deadline. The Joint Committee indicated that the Member should have been prudent in his record keeping and could have requested new forms. The Joint Committee found that the Member breached item 10.1.1.1 read with item 9.2.2 of the Code.

2.3.3 The Joint Committee afforded the Member an opportunity to address it in writing on the recommended penalty.

2.4.1 The Member submitted the disclosure of interest form on 19 September 2019.

The Joint Committee indicated that the Member did not offer an explanation for the period preceding 13 September 2019 and therefore could have submitted the form prior to 13 September 2019. The Joint Committee noted that the Member’s name did not reflect on the control sheet in the Office of the Registrar and that the Member did not have a receipt, which is issued to a Member when a form is submitted to the Office of the Registrar. The Joint Committee found that the Member breached item 10.1.1.1 read with item 9.2.2 of the Code.

2.5.3 The Joint Committee afforded the Member an opportunity to address it in writing on the recommended penalty.

The Assistant indicated that he left the form on the desk of the staff member in the Office of the Registrar who was attending to other Members at the time. The Assistant indicated that he then left the office. The Member requests the Joint Committee to consider the fact that she has never since 2004 submitted a declaration form late.
