(AD HOC COMMITTEE ON THE REVIEW OF THE POWERS, PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES OF PARLIAMENT AND PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURES ACT)
GENERAL EXPLANATORY NOTE:

Words in bold type in square brackets indicate omissions from existing enactments.

Words underlined with a solid line indicate insertions in existing enactments.

BILL

To amend the Powers, Privileges and Immunities of Parliament and Provincial Legislatures Act, 2003, so as to amend a definition; to provide that the arrest and removal, on the order of a presiding officer, of a person who creates or takes part in any disturbance on the precincts is not applicable to a member; to provide that a provincial legislature may choose to either appoint a standing committee or establish an ad hoc committee to deal with disciplinary action against members of a provincial legislature for contempt of that provincial legislature; to provide that the Speaker of a provincial legislature exercises control and authority over the precincts on behalf of that provincial legislature; to clarify vague sections in the Act; to effect technical and grammatical corrections; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

PREAMBLE

BEARING IN MIND that the Constitutional Court found, in the case of Democratic Alliance v Speaker of the National Assembly and Others [2016] ZACC 8, that freedom of speech in the National Assembly and the National Council of Provinces as contemplated in sections 58(1)(a) and 71(1)(a) of the Constitution is subject only to the relevant House’s respective rules and orders and cannot be regulated in an Act of Parliament;

AND BEARING IN MIND that the immunities provided for in sections 58(1)(b) and 71(1)(b) of the Constitution are absolute,

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:—

Amendment of section 1 of Act 4 of 2004

1. Section 1 of the Powers, Privileges and Immunities of Parliament and Provincial Legislatures Act, 2003 (Act No. 4 of 2004) (hereinafter referred to as the “principal Act”), is hereby amended by the substitution for the definition of “disturbance” of the following definition:

“‘disturbance’ means any act which interferes with or disrupts or which is likely to interfere with or disrupt the proceedings of Parliament or a House or committee but does not include an act committed by a member in the exercise of his or her privilege contemplated in sections 58(1) and 71(1) of the Constitution;”.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE POWERS, PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES OF PARLIAMENT AND PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURES AMENDMENT BILL, 2018

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 The Powers, Privileges and Immunities of Parliament and Provincial Legislatures Act, 2003 (Act No. 4 of 2004), (hereinafter referred to as the “principal Act”), came into operation on 7 June 2004. The main purpose of the principal Act is to define and declare certain powers, privileges and immunities of Parliament, provincial legislatures, members of the National Assembly, delegates to the National Council of Provinces and members of provincial legislatures; and to provide for incidental matters thereto.

1.2 On 18 March 2016, the Constitutional Court, in the Democratic Alliance v Speaker of the National Assembly and Others [2016] ZACC 8 matter (“the judgment”), declared section 11 of the principal Act to be invalid in that it applied to members. The Constitutional Court ruled that the omission of the words “other than a member” after the word “person” at the beginning of section 11 of the principal Act is declared to be inconsistent with the Constitution. The Constitutional Court further stated that section 11 of the principal Act is to be read as though the words “other than a member” appear after the word “person” at the beginning of the section. The Constitutional Court also found that parliamentary free speech as contained in sections 58(1)(a) and 71(1)(a) of the Constitution is subject only to rules and orders and may not be regulated in an Act of Parliament.

2. OBJECTS OF THE BILL

2.1 The Powers, Privileges and Immunities of Parliament and Provincial Legislatures Amendment Bill, 2018 (“the Bill”), addresses the judgment by providing that a “disturbance” does not include an act committed by a member in the exercise of his or her freedom of speech as contemplated in sections 58(1) and 71(1) of the Constitution; and providing that the arrest and removal, on the order of a presiding officer, of a person who creates or takes part in any disturbance on the precincts is not applicable to a member. The Bill, inter alia, further provides that a provincial legislature may choose to either appoint a standing committee or establish an ad hoc committee to deal with disciplinary action against members of a provincial legislature for contempt of that provincial legislature; provides that the Speaker of a provincial legislature exercises control and authority over the precincts on behalf of that provincial legislature; clarifies vague sections in the Act; and effects technical and grammatical corrections.

3. CONTENTS OF THE BILL

3.1 Clause 1 amends section 1 of the principal Act by amending the definition of “disturbance” so that it excludes an act committed by a member in the exercise of his or her privilege as contemplated in sections 58(1) and 71(1) of the Constitution.

3.2 Clause 2 amends section 7(f) of the principal Act to clarify that no person may fail or refuse to comply with a lawful instruction by a duly authorised staff member regarding such person’s presence at a particular meeting in the precincts.

3.3 Clause 3 amends section 11 of the principal Act by providing for the “read-in” provision of the Constitutional Court in the Democratic Alliance v Speaker of the National Assembly and Others [2016] ZACC 8 judgment.
3.4 Clause 4 amends section 12(5)(f) of the principal Act by inserting the word “or” at the end of that section so that it is clear that either of the penalties listed may be imposed.

3.5 Clause 5 amends section 22 of the principal Act by replacing the phrase “liable in damages” with the more widely used phrase “liable for damages”.

3.6 Clause 6 amends section 23(2)(a) of the principal Act by inserting the word “or” at the end of that section to distinguish the different alternatives between section 23(2)(a) and (b).

3.7 Clause 7 amends section 24(a) of the principal Act to make it clear who “person” refers to by replacing the word “person” with the words “member or that permanent delegate”.

3.8 Clause 8 amends section 25(2) of the principal Act so that it is clear that the response of the aggrieved person must be published.

3.9 Clause 9 amends section 28 of the principal Act by the addition of paragraph (g) to subsection (2) to provide that the definition of “disturbance” must be construed as excluding an act committed by a member of a provincial legislature or the province’s permanent delegate to the National Council of Provinces in the exercise of his or her privilege contemplated in section 117(1) of the Constitution when being applied to provincial legislatures. Clause 9 further amends section 28 by adding a new subsection (3) to provide that, for the purposes of section 12(2), a provincial legislature may choose to either appoint a standing committee or establish an ad hoc committee.

3.10 Clause 10 inserts a new section 28(A) in the principal Act to provide that the Speaker of a provincial legislature exercises control and authority over the precincts on behalf of that legislature.

3.11 Clause 11 amends section 29(2)(a) of the principal Act by inserting the word “or” at the end of that section to distinguish the different alternatives between section 29(2)(a) and (b).

3.12 Clause 12 amends section 30(a) of the principal Act to make it clear who “person” refers to by replacing the word “person” with the word “member”.

3.13 Clause 13 amends section 32 of the principal Act by replacing and correcting the year “2003” with “2004”.

3.14 Clause 14 provides for the short title.

4. ORGANISATIONAL AND PERSONNEL IMPLICATIONS

None.

5. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR THE STATE

None.

6. DEPARTMENTS, BODIES OR PERSONS CONSULTED

6.1 The Committee published a draft Bill for comment on 23 February 2018 in Government Gazette No. 41456. The closing date for comment was 26 March 2018. The Committee considered and deliberated upon the submission received.

7. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

7.1 The Committee proposes that the Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution since it contains no provisions to which the procedures set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution apply.

7.2 The Committee is of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it does not contain provisions pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
