(b) money appropriated by Parliament;
(c) money loaned to the Administrator;
(d) interest earned on money in the account;
(e) money recovered in terms of any claims re-insurance scheme; and
(f) investment returns on invested money from the account.

Use of money in benefit account

27. The money in the benefit account shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be under the control of the Chief Executive Officer, and shall be used for—

(a) the payment of benefits provided for in Chapter 6;
(b) the costs related to the appointment of, and the fees of, curators appointed to assist claimants and beneficiaries;
(c) the payment in respect of documents contemplated in subsection 64(3);
(d) subject to approval by the Minister of Transport, in consultation with the Minister of Finance, transfers to the transition account referred to in section 28;
(e) the payment of premiums related to any claims re-insurance scheme;
(f) the payment of expenses related to the maintenance of the benefit account; and
(g) repayment of loans contemplated in section 26(2)(c).

Transition account

28. (1) The Administrator must open and maintain a transition account.

(2) The transition account shall consist of—

(a) money that belonged to the Road Accident Fund prior to the coming into effect of this Act;
(b) money appropriated by Parliament;
(c) money transferred into the transition account, subsequent to the approval contemplated in section 27(d);
