

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

QUESTION PAPER

Note:

1. ★ Indicates a question for oral reply.

Table of Contents

Deputy President.....1, 2

QUESTIONS FOR ORAL REPLY

WEDNESDAY, 27 FEBRUARY 2019

DEPUTY PRESIDENT

★1. Ms C C September (ANC) to ask the Deputy President:

In view of the fact that our nation's greatest resource is its people and that the Government has a clear mandate on the creation of more and decent jobs, with a special focus on addressing youth and women unemployment, (a) what programmes does the Government have, other than the numerous programmes of the Human Resource Development Council of South Africa (details furnished), that are aimed at targeting young people and women and (b) how will the specified programmes prepare them for the Fourth Industrial Revolution?

NO166E

★2. Mr J H Steenhuisen (DA) to ask the Deputy President:

With reference to his oral reply to question 10 on 25 April 2018, what progress has been made with the Executive's implementation of practical measures to deal with the problem of non-attendance of parliamentary programmes by Members of the Executive through the (a) introduction of a roster on the attendance of parliamentary sessions by Members of the Executive who will be monitored by the three Members of the Executive and (b) introduction of a monitoring and tracking mechanism to ensure that Members of the Executive respond timeously to parliamentary questions? NO170E

★3 Mr N F Shivambu (EFF) to ask the Deputy President:

With reference to his responsibilities as Chairperson of the Human Resources Development Council, what is the Government doing to align education with the Fourth Industrial Revolution, with particular reference to the production of relevant human resources? NO169E

★4. Mr M S A Masango (ANC) to ask the Deputy President:

- (1) In view of aspiration number four of the African Union's Agenda 2063 to ensure that we have a peaceful and secure Africa, in what manner has he found will our strategic resolve to build a better Africa contribute towards the recognition of human rights, justice and the rule of law which are necessary pre-conditions for a peaceful and conflict-free continent;
- (2) what were the salient issues emanating from his discussions with the leadership of the Intergovernmental Authority on Development in relation to finding lasting peace and stability for the peoples of South Sudan and Africa at large? NO167E

★5. Mr X Ngwezi (IFP) to ask the Deputy President:

In leading the public employment programmes, what steps has he taken to ensure that all relevant Ministers and their departments and all government institutions implement the call made by the President of the Republic of South Africa, Mr M C Ramaphosa, in his state of the nation address on 7 February 2019 that experience will no longer be a prerequisite when applying for an entry-level job under the public employment programmes, in order to address the youth unemployment crisis? NO168E

★6. Mr A M Shaik-Emam (NFP) to ask the Deputy President:

In light of the serious challenges the country faces as a result of corruption, fraud and maladministration, taking into consideration the revelations made at the Judicial Commission of Inquiry into Allegations of State Capture, Bosasa and the Parliamentary committee Report on Eskom, (a) what mechanisms does the Government intend to put in place to vet all public representatives and the executive, including officials at national, provincial and local level to ensure that they possess the highest level of integrity and morality in governance and (b) will the Government consider introducing legislative amendments to ensure that anyone found guilty of any corruption and/or fraud will have all their benefits forfeited to the State? NO171E