

PROCEDURE FOR A DIVISION

The CHAIRPERSON: Order! Honourable members a division has been called. I have ascertained that four or more members are in favour of the division. I would also like to caution members that during division no debate would be allowed.

(Thereafter):

The CHAIRPERSON: The Question upon which the Council will divide, is that Bill be agreed to.

(Thereafter):

The CHAIRPERSON: We shall now proceed to the voting on the Question.

(Afterwards):

The CHAIRPERSON: I would like to request Hon Members to vote by raising their hands:

- Those who vote in favour.
- Those who vote against.
- Those who abstain.

(Afterwards):

The CHAIRPERSON: Order! Voting will close. Could the table staff submit the results?

(Announcement of the results)

The CHAIRPERSON: . . . . . Members voted in favour.
. . . . . Members voted against.
. . . . . Members abstain / No abstention

(Afterwards):

The CHAIRPERSON: The majority of members have voted in favour, I therefore declare Bill agreed to.

(If there is a request for an OBJECTION to be noted)

The CHAIRPERSON: The objection of the X party will be noted.
